

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS

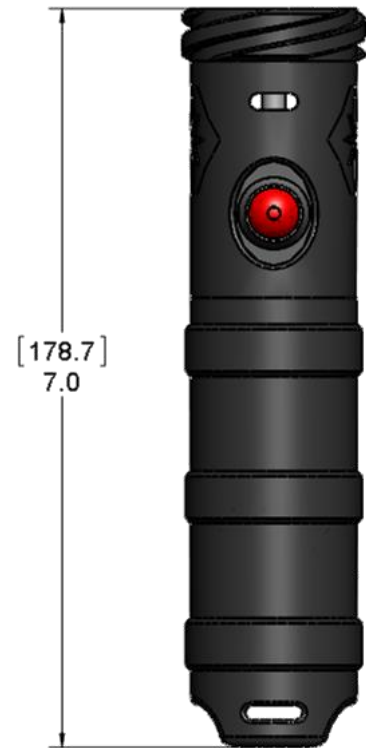

Part Number: H200 (Rev D)

The H200 is specifically designed as a low cost and rugged power supply for safe initiation of TEC Torch products. The product is constructed of glass reinforced Nylon with fully encapsulated electronics. The rear push button is depressed and locked to ARM the device with an LED indicator. Power is supplied, by momentarily depressing the side FIRE button (red). A single 9 VDC battery is housed inside and easily replaceable. A loop at the rear of the handle is provided for lanyard attachment.

LOGISTICS

- Weight: 0.55 lb [250 gram]
- N.E.W.: N/A
- Operation:
 1. Cartridge installation serves to hold cartridge in a fixed physical position and complete electric circuit
 2. ARM and FIRE switches allow electrical current to flow into the cartridge
 3. New battery is capable of firing up to four (4) cartridges in parallel
- Interface: Universal front receptacle with coax connector
- Shelf Life: 5 yrs with proper storage (no battery)
- Battery: 9 VDC

[mm]
inch

